Grants Arts Council England offers support for individual artists, organisations and national touring. The organisational grants programme is available both to specialist arts organisations and to those that use the arts as part of their work. It aims to change people's lives through the opportunity to take part in or experience high quality arts activities; increase opportunities for cultural diversity in the arts; support excellence, new ideas and activity to help build long-term stability in arts organisations; invest in the creative talent of artists and individuals; and increase resources for the arts. Activities eligible for grants include projects and events, participatory arts activities, educational activities, capital items, and professional development and training. Grants normally range from £200 up to £100,000, and can cover activities lasting up to three years. Most grants will be under £30,000. Applications for grants under £5,000 will be handled in under six weeks.

Tel 0845 4 10 20 30

E-mail enquiries@biglotteryfund.org.uk Website www.biglotteryfund.org.uk

Grants Launched in June 2004, the Big Lottery Fund was formed as a result of a merger between the New Opportunities Fund, which made grants for health, education and the environment, and the Community Fund, the main source of lottery money to the voluntary sector. It has also taken over assets of the Millennium Commission and its role in supporting large-scale regeneration projects. Between 60% and 70% of its £1 billion of new funding a year is distributed to the voluntary sector. This is expected to be the case until 2009.

The Young People's Fund aims to promote the well-being and personal development of young people across the UK. Young people can access the funding scheme either individually or through their organisations and groups. The fund totals £200 million, with £157.5 million being allocated to England. There are 3 types of grant: grants to individual young people aged between 11 and 25 of between £250 and £5,000; grants to community and voluntary organisations working with young people aged between 11 and 18 of between £5,000 and £150,000; and grants to voluntary organisations to fund national projects.

Grants The primary purpose of the Trust is to help disadvantaged people, including young people, in Cumbria, Northumberland, Tyne & Wear, Durham and Teesside only. There are seven grant programmes: prevention of local and regional social decline; regeneration; day to day service delivery; exploration and experiment in addressing social problems; a better, stronger, voluntary sector; aspiration in raising the profile of the region; and basics, day-to-day services. There is also a three-year programme funding work with prisoners, including those aged 18 to 25, to prevent reoffending.

Grants Offers grants mainly in the West Midlands area and the wider UK to a lesser extent. In Birmingham and the West Midlands the trust funds community and self-help groups working with disadvantaged young people and music, drama and the visual arts. Small grants (not exceeding £1,000) are assessed each month. Larger grants are assessed in May and November.
